GEORGETOWN COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE IS AWARDED REACCREDITATION BY SOUTH CAROLINA LAW ENFORCEMENT ACCREDITATION INC.

Georgetown County Sheriff Carter Weaver accepted his agency's fourth Certificate of Accreditation from South Carolina Law Enforcement Accreditation Inc. in Columbia, S.C., Friday, Sept. 3, 2021.

During the accreditation process, all areas of the sheriff's office were inspected to determine if the policies, standards and performances were in line with recognized best practices. The final step was an inspection where South Carolina Law Enforcement Accreditation Inc. assessors visited the sheriff's office to see the operations firsthand and solicit public input on the agency's performance. The Georgetown County Sheriff's Office is one of 30 law enforcement agencies in South Carolina to receive state accreditation.

The certificate reads, "Georgetown County Sheriff's Office has demonstrated dedication to excellence and professionalism in South Carolina law enforcement through voluntary compliance to specific standards designed to enhance the professional delivery of law enforcement services and is recognized as a leader in South Carolina law enforcement and is hereby awarded this Fourth Certificate of Accreditation."

Sheriff Weaver says reaccreditation allows his department to measure itself against the highest standards in law enforcement and improve its delivery of services to the citizens of Georgetown County.
