SUSPECT IN CUSTODY AFTER SHOTS FIRED

November 13, 2024: Sheriff Carter Weaver has announced the arrest of a suspect in an incident involving shots fired at Nushell Street and Mercer Avenue this evening. Deputies with the Georgetown County Sheriff's Office located shell casings from a handgun at the scene. One residence had a single bullet hole in its siding. There were no injuries reported.

Witnesses identified Quamae Rashaad Singleton, 18, as a suspect, and he was found at his residence on Mercer Avenue. Deputies obtained a search warrant prior to finding a .40 caliber Glock handgun and approximately four grams of "crack" cocaine in his bedroom. He was charged with Discharging a Firearm into a Dwelling, Possession With Intent to Distribute Crack Cocaine and Aggravated Breach of Peace.

He is being detained at Georgetown County Detention Center, awaiting warrant service and a bond hearing. The incident remains under investigation. Anyone with information should call 843-546-5102.
